Prez sez

Not as a Tourist but as a Returning Friend

As you probably all know Jon and I spent two weeks in Poland in June.

We have been to Poland before and had more invitations than we could possibly accept. That's because every time we go back we make new friends and renew our Rotary connections with friends we have made on other trips.

For instance my first visit to Inowroclaw was in May of 1999. The son of the president of that Rotary club was just 11 then. He was very shy around the American visitors (our Group Study Exchange team had supper in his house our first evening in Poland). He could speak a few words of English but never volunteered a word.

Three weeks ago this young man came to pick us up at the train station. Over six feet tall with a confident manner and solid English it was hard to imagine that this was the same Jasue I first met 7 years ago. What a pleasure to talk to this young man who wants to become a physician just like his dad.

Rotary is like that. You meet someone once, they are sympatyczna as Polish says, you keep in touch by e-mail and the next thing you know you are staying in their home and you become another aunt to their children.

Rotary connections are strong and one never knows how they will pay off. I'll report at our Friday meeting how my connection with the RC of Inowroclaw has paid off for our club.

President Martha

This Week's Program

Bob LeMonte,
Professional Sports Representation, Inc

Professional Sports Representation, Inc. provides unique and flexible representation for today's sports professional. "PSR" is a family-owned and operated corporation. Bob and Lynn LaMonte manage one of the few experienced sports representation corporations in the world that maintains both a local touch and a global reach. In this era of big-time sports and big-time salaries, coaches, general managers, and CEO's require intelligent, personal, and honest representation.

PSR's motto best exemplifies the attitude about clients coming first:

"We are not a big-time agency, we just represent big-time people!" Founded in 1979 while Bob LaMonte was still teaching high school history and coaching high school football, PSR, Inc. is recognized today for integrity and personal service. Our clients over the previous 25 years can attest to the quality of service and level of commitment. The overwhelming majority of PSR's clients come from personal referrals.
