Prez sez

Warm greetings from our sister club, the Rotary Club of Inowroclaw, Poland. Their president, Benek, Skyped me Thanksgiving morning to get an update on our joint water project. He asked to be remembered to our club.

What sort of club do we want to be?

I have been thinking about Jack's remarks from two weeks ago. Jack said that until every table is filled at our meetings we should not stop looking for quality members for our club. I interpreted his remarks to mean that our club should not be complacent about our club and our membership.

It's easy to become stuck in our comfort zone and stop growing and stretching to see what more we can do to make a difference here at home and around the world.

At the board meeting next Wednesday we will be discussing how to handle the club's finances. For most of our existence we have raised money and spent it within a few months. A couple of years ago that board decided that we should reserve some of our funds for incoming presidents. Specifically, the decision was that the funds that the President Nominee raised would be reserved to be spent in their year as president. This decision was made for two reasons:

So the incoming president can better plan their goals and projects ahead of time

So some of those goals and projects can be completed before the first fundraiser.

Wednesday evening your board will discuss this decision and either re-affirm or change it.

If you have comments, ideas or rants about this issue please talk, call or e-mail one of the board members before Wednesday morning or attend the meeting Wednesday evening to help the board make the best decision.

President Martha

This Week's Program

Fred Harvey UNR Rifle Team Coach

Harvey was Named Coach of the Year in 2003 by the Collegiate Rifle Coaches Association. He led Nevada to a fourth-place finish in the NCAA Championship Tournament in 2003, and followed that up with a second-place finish in 2004, the Wolf Pack's highest finish ever.

Rifle is the only NCAA sport to have men and women compete against one another directly, and Coach Harvey has no problems finding qualified candidates from both genders. Fred has coached four All-Americans in his 11-year career at Nevada, two men and two women. Ryan Tanoue (2002, 2003, 2004), Michael Tanoue (2006), Holly Caraway (2004) and Meghan Morrill (2006) have earned All-American honors, with Ryan Tanoue winning the 2002 NCAA Individual Air Rifle title.

"Coach (Harvey) is the reason I chose Nevada," All-American Meghan Morrill said. "He and I just clicked; he is a true player's coach."

Coach Harvey's resume is quite impressive, having earned his bachelor's degree in National Security and Public Affairs from the United States Military Academy at West Point. Harvey earned a master's degree in Procurement and Materials Management from Webster University. He also graduated from the British Army Staff College as well as the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College with honors (Master's Equivalent).

Along with his coaching duties, Harvey serves as a Supervisory Buyer for the Nevada System of Higher Education's Business Center North and was a professor of Military Science at the University of Nevada.

Harvey is married to wife Sheri, and they have two daughters, Sarah and DeAdre.

Harvey's favorite anecdote: "If you don't know where you are going, any road will get you there."

He began coaching the Wolf Pack in the 1995-96 season.
