Prez sez

I've been thinking about our holiday party last week and why such a gathering is unique. Although we don't agree politically nor culturally nor worship the same god (or believe at all), we are able to be friends and appreciate each other's company. Why is that? I believe its because although we may disagree on the methods, we all work to make the world a better place for our children. We are all willing to use our time, labor and resources to work towards that goal. Having that daunting goal means we remember what's important and forgive and forget what's not. That's why we can enjoy each other's company.

Rotarians are doers and we make a difference every day in every corner of the world. I'm proud to be part of that effort and I hope all of you remember to pat yourselves on the back for what you do to Lead the Way in making the world a better place.

Many, many thanks to Virginia for opening her beautiful home to us again this year. Thanks also to the helpers who made sure we had lots to eat and drink.

Best wishes for a joyous holiday season!

President Martha
